SUMMARY

Synopsis of SCONC Substitute

Senate Conservation Committee Substitute for Senate Rules Committee Substitute for Senate Memorial 46 resolves that the Senate of the State of New Mexico give it support to the governor's intention to secure water quality in the state's headwaters with the outstanding national resource waters designation; and that all outstanding national resource waters designations be made pursuant to the Water Quality Act and other relevant state laws and regulations. The legislation further resolves of the memorial be transmitted to the governor, the secretary of environment and the water quality control commission.

There is no appropriation attached to this legislation.
