

HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL 12

49TH LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2010

INTRODUCED BY

Nathan P. Cote

A JOINT MEMORIAL

REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO DECLARE APRIL 28, 2010 AS

"POSTTRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER AWARENESS DAY."

WHEREAS, veterans and active duty and reserve military personnel make significant sacrifices to protect the nation's freedom and way of life; and

WHEREAS, posttraumatic stress disorder is a deep and unseen wound carried back from battle by the brave servicemembers who fight for freedom overseas; and

WHEREAS, posttraumatic stress disorder manifests itself in ways that much of society cannot understand and yet must acknowledge in the ongoing effort to assist New Mexico's servicemembers with their honorable struggles to reacclimate to a non-combat environment when returning home; and

WHEREAS, many organizations with qualified individuals,

1 some of whom are veterans, offer a full range of services for
2 New Mexico's veterans suffering from posttraumatic stress
3 disorder who have served in the five branches of the armed 4 forces; and

5 WHEREAS, the work done by these organizations and their 6 volunteers, while critically important, is not widely known; 7 and

8 WHEREAS, no formal period of reflection has been set aside
9 for residents of New Mexico to learn about posttraumatic stress
10 disorder and its effects on New Mexico's veterans or for 11 residents of New Mexico to learn ways in which they can engage 12 in meaningful efforts to recognize posttraumatic stress
13 disorder and assist the brave veterans' return to civilian 14 life; and

15 WHEREAS, a day of awareness for posttraumatic stress
16 disorder can serve as a public service for New Mexico's 17 veterans and as an educational opportunity for New Mexicans to 18 better understand posttraumatic stress disorder as it affects 19 New Mexico's returning servicemembers; and

20 WHEREAS, President Barack Obama has committed to reducing 21 the number of troops in Iraq to fifty thousand by August 2010,
22 thus increasing the need to be prepared to treat New Mexico's
23 returning servicemembers;

24 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE 25 STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the governor be requested to declare
