1 shall retain the final decision-making authority and 2 responsibility for the administration of any such laws as 3 provided in Subsection B of Section 9-19-6 NMSA 1978. The 4 department shall have access to all records, data and 5 information of other state departments, agencies and 6 institutions, including its own organizational units, not 7 specifically held confidential by law.

8 B. The New Mexico state police division shall 9 consist of the commissioned officers and civilian personnel,
10 including all communications equipment operators, of the New 11 Mexico state police uniform division and the commissioned 12 officers and civilian personnel of the New Mexico state police
13 criminal division and such other personnel as may be assigned 14 by the secretary or by the governor pursuant to an executive 15 order as authorized in the Department of Public Safety Act.

16 C. The special investigations division shall 17 consist of the enforcement personnel of the department of 18 alcoholic beverage control and such other personnel as may be 19 assigned by the secretary or by the governor pursuant to an 20 executive order as authorized in the Department of Public 21 Safety Act. The division is responsible for the enforcement of 22 the New Mexico Bingo and Raffle Act and the Liquor Control Act.

23 D. The technical support division shall consist of 24 functions such as communications, crime laboratory and records.

25 E. The training and recruiting division shall

1 consist of the personnel of the New Mexico law enforcement
2 academy, the New Mexico state police training division and all
3 other training personnel and functions of the department as the 4 secretary may transfer to this division.

5 F. The administrative services division shall 6 consist of the administrative services and services divisions
7 of the New Mexico state police and those administrative support 8 personnel of the other existing departments, divisions or 9 offices as the secretary deems necessary.

10 G. The public corruption investigations and 11 prosecution division shall consist of functions relating to the 12 investigation and prosecution of public corruption offenses in 13 the state. The division shall have the authority to issue 14 subpoenas for use in any pending cause in any administrative 15 proceeding or in any of the courts of the state, and the 16 subpoenas issued by the division may be enforced through any 17 district court of the state. The division may perform other 18 such duties relating to the investigation and prosecution of 19 public corruption as may be assigned by the governor or the 20 secretary."
