SENATE MEMORIAL 10

52ND LEGISLATURE - STATE OF NEW MEXICO - SECOND SESSION, 2016

INTRODUCED BY

William P. Soules

A MEMORIAL

URGING THE NEW MEXICO CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION IN WASHINGTON, D.C., TO SUPPORT EFFORTS TO REINSTATE SEPARATION OF COMMERCIAL AND INVESTMENT BANKING FUNCTIONS IN EFFECT UNDER THE BANKING ACT OF 1933.

WHEREAS, an effective money and banking system is essential to a functional economy; and

WHEREAS, such a system must function in the public interest without bias; and

WHEREAS, since 1933, the federal Banking Act of 1933, also known as the Glass-Steagall Act, protected the public interest through the regulation of commercial and investment banking, insurance companies and securities; and

WHEREAS, the Glass-Steagall Act was repealed in 1999, permitting members of financial institutions to exploit the

1 financial system for their own gain with disregard of the 2 public interest, contributing to the greatest speculative 3 bubble and global economic crisis since the great depression;
4 and

5 WHEREAS, the worldwide economic collapse has left millions
6 of homes in foreclosure, has cost millions of jobs nationwide 7 and has put severe financial strain on states, counties and 8 cities, exacerbating unemployment and the loss of social 9 services; and

10 WHEREAS, many financial industry entities were bailed out 11 by the United States department of the treasury at a cost of 12 hundreds of billions of dollars to American taxpayers; and

13 WHEREAS, the United States house of representatives and 14 the United States senate have been making efforts to restore 15 the protections of the Glass-Steagall Act; and

16 WHEREAS, United States Representative Marcy Kaptur has 17 introduced H.R. 381, known as the Return to Prudent Banking Act 18 of 2015, which would revive the separation between commercial 19 banking and the securities business in the manner provided by 20 the Glass-Steagall Act; and

21 WHEREAS, United States Senator Elizabeth Warren, along 22 with United States Senators John McCain, Maria Cantwell and 23 Angus King, have introduced the 21st Century Glass-Steagall Act
24 of 2015 (S. 1709), which would reduce risk for American 25 taxpayers in the financial system and decrease the likelihood

1 of future financial crises; and

2 WHEREAS, the reinstatement of the Glass-Steagall Act has 3 widespread national support from prominent economic, banking,
4 labor, academic, legislative and business leaders, including 5 the American federation of labor and congress of industrial 6 organizations; the united federation of teachers; the 7 international association of machinists and aerospace workers;
8 Thomas Hoenig, vice chair of the federal deposit insurance 9 corporation; and David Stockman, director of the office of 10 management and budget under President Ronald Reagan; and

11 WHEREAS, twenty-two state legislatures have introduced 12 measures urging congress to reinstate the provisions of the 13 Glass-Steagall Act;

14 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE
15 OF NEW MEXICO that congress and the president of the United 16 States be urged to support the passage of the Return to Prudent 17 Banking Act of 2015 and to enact legislation that would 18 reinstate the separation of commercial and investment banking 19 functions that was in effect under the federal Banking Act of

21 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such legislation should 22 prohibit commercial banks and bank holding companies from 23 investing in stocks, underwriting securities or investing in or 24 acting as guarantors to derivative transactions to prevent 25 American taxpayers from being called upon to fund the bailout

1 of financial institutions; and

2 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be 3 transmitted to the president of the United States, each member 4 of the New Mexico congressional delegation and the clerk of the 5 house of representatives and the secretary of the senate of the 6 United States congress.
