SECTION 2. As used in Section 1 of this resolution, "exclusive legislative jurisdiction" means the vesting in the United States of all the rights accorded a sovereign with the broad qualification that such authority is held over matters, including criminal laws, public powers and tax laws to the extent that those rights do not contravene Section 19-2-3 NMSA 1978. It is the right of the federal government to legislate with respect to such land and persons present or residing on it, subject only to the United States and state constitutional constraints.
