This funding would be administered through the existing processes; there would be no additional costs to administer this funding.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

The Department of Cultural Affairs provided the following:

House Bill 485 – Page 2

HB485 directs funds to the department to support programs and services for government/tribal entities, arts organizations and schools/university throughout the state. The department's most effective means for accomplishing this would be through New Mexico Arts' existing arts services program. Through this program, Federal 501 (c) (3) tax-exempt nonprofit organizations, units of government, schools, colleges, universities, and tribal government entities with offices in New Mexico are eligible to apply. Funds are used to support arts education, arts economic development, performing and visual arts, and contemporary and traditional folk arts statewide.

Funds allocated would need to be distributed in accordance with state procurement policies.

WHAT WILL BE THE CONSEQUENCES OF NOT ENACTING THIS BILL

Status Quo, the Department of Cultural Affairs will continue to provide service to local art entities through their Arts Program.
