to provide a network of information exchange for the mediation community in the State of New Mexico.”

WHO WE ARE

The New Mexico Mediation Association (NMMA) is a non-profit organization of mediators and members of the mediation community interested in mediation in the state of New Mexico. We have a listing of mediators in most cities across New Mexico and we are growing every day! Interested in securing a mediator? Use our Contact us page and we will provide some member contacts who you can consult with. We are committed to advancing the practice of Alternative Dispute Resolution through education, training and learning events, informational speakers, practice groups, mediator recruitment, and informational links to local and national resources. Your membership with NMMA makes this possible, and we invite you to join us today!
